Overview

Overall, Alabama added 244,543 people over the last decade as their population increased by 5.12% between 2010 and 2020. Its Congressional delegation remains unchanged at 7 members.

Alabama’s population remained stagnant throughout the state but experienced growth around cities such as Huntsville, Mobile, and the suburbs surrounding Birmingham, thus aligning with the general national trend of movement from rural to urban/suburban areas.

The White population declined by nearly 4%, falling from 67.04% in the 2010 Census to 63.12% in the 2020 Census. Overall, the White population fell -1.03% over the decade in accordance/not in accordance with its national patterns of decline. The White population declined in most districts but increased in urban areas like Birmingham and Mobile similarly to the rest of the state’s population.

Over the decade, the African American population increased by 3.51% across the state, but saw a significant increase of 30.42% around Hoover (District 6). Despite this growth, the overall share of the population for African Americans decreased to 25.64% from 26.04% in the 2010 Census.

The Latino population grew by 42.27% over the decade across all areas of the state, though increases were concentrated slightly more to urban areas . The overall share of the population of Latinos rose to 5.26% compared to 3.88% in the 2010 Census.
